ABM Pew Sheet Reflections 2022: "The prologue to St John's Gospel is one of the best-known and most-loved passages of Scripture. John writes elegantly as he describes for us the mystery of the Incarnation. We see a summary of all the gospels laid out for us: '... to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God ...' and in that we can see that God is inviting us to share an intimate part of the divine life. Those who receive Jesus and believe in his name become not just followers, but family."

“Although face masks are not mandatory, we feel it is very important that they be worn in church at present. With this new strain going rampant & with visitors coming into our towns, it makes great sense to be cautious. We also have people in our congregations who are elderly or unwell & need to be protected. So please wear a mask in church. There will be masks available if you do not have one, or forget yours. Thank you so much for your understanding.” - Caroline Tolley; (email, Rev Mandy)

A REMINDER to collect all your bottles up over this busy season for recycling, we are well over $5,500 saved since the scheme commenced. Again, the Parish thanks you for your joint contributions towards helping to “Keep Australia Beautiful”, and to funding our ministry here. If you need help with the actual recycling task, do let Marie know.

AND

A REMINDER to save up those cards that came your way this season, so our wonderful craft folk can begin to ready the supply once again (no pressure everyone, of course!) A friend recently expressed her great appreciation for the style and look of her card, and has decided to donate some of her collection of more interesting cards to you – again, the Parish thanks you for your ministry in this way, and for the important financial support it provides.

“I always find the build up to New Year's Eve interesting - why do we think that the calendar ticking over from the 31st December to 1st January will make a big difference in our lives? We know we are always in God's Hands so maybe we should view NYE not so much a celebration of an arbitrary date but of hope and faith in the future that He has ahead for us.” —
