“RESURRECTION ROLLS – (an Easter teaching opportunity courtesy Vision Christian Radio, recipe from coffeewithus3)

Pastry sheet; 8 Marshmallows; 2 Tbsp. Butter; 1 Tbsp. Cinnamon; 2 Tbsp. Sugar; Muffin tin.
Get everything out & pre-heat oven to 190 degrees (375F).
Mix sugar & cinnamon in the bowl together; Melt butter in another bowl; Cut pastry into triangles Dip the marshmallow in butter then in the sugar & cinnamon mix. Then wrap each marshmallow in a pastry triangle & place them on the greased tray - seam down is best.

While doing this, you can mention the butter and cinnamon spice represents the ladies getting Jesus’ body ready before he went in the tomb. Bake for 10-12 mins.

During baking, read the Easter story together & chat about what Easter really means. In no time the timer will ping & they will be ready. Get them out of the oven & let them cool. You can sprinkle some sugar and cinnamon over the top of them.

Once they are cool chop them open so the kids can see the inside.
They will see the roll “tomb” is bare, just like the tomb was on the 3rd day.
I think this is best thing!

The marshmallow has melted away and left a space where it used to be.
Just like Jesus rising and leaving a space in the tomb.” – Becci
