THURSDAY APRIL 25, 2024 - 'LEST WE FORGET':

Micah 4: 1-4 Psalm 46 Hebrews 10.32-11.1 John 15. 9-17

ABM Pew Sheet Reflections 2024: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." Christ Church Cathedral Newcastle holds many treasures, & one of our most precious is the 'Book of Gold'. After World War I, the names of all who had died during the Great War, were beautifully & carefully written in this book. The covers of this book are made from the gold from the jewellery, largely rings, donated by those whose loved ones had died. The book carries the weight of love. In Jesus we encounter such love beyond measure.

Pray for those for whom the weight of remembrance is heavy.

Give thanks for ministry of ADF Bishop, the Rt Rev Grant Dibden, and all forces chaplains."

"In 2019 the bronze statue of Light Horseman Jack Pollard was unveiled on the shores of Lake Galilee, honouring the 1,000 indigenous troopers who served in Palestine in WW1. He is kneeling beside his horse, both of them with their heads bowed over the grave of a newly buried mate. Jack was a man of faith, so in his hand is a New Testament telling the story of the one the world remembers as having laid down his life for both friends and enemies.

That carpenter from Nazareth had walked that same ground in Northern Israel.

I was very moved when I saw it. In talking about it with an Aboriginal mate, we both agreed that this sculpture expresses the power of Jesus' self-sacrifice to transcend the pain of any racial prejudice and the horror of any battlefield." – Paul Roe, from his book: Tell Me Another.

PRAY FOR: 'Burkina Faso – In 2023, about 4.7m people, over 20% of population, were in need of humanitarian assistance. Burkina Faso was once ... a bastion of religious tolerance, where its majority 60% Muslim population lived in peace with the 30% Christians & the 10% African Traditional Religions. That harmony was shattered in 2015 when Muslim extremists moved from Mali & Niger into the north. Pray for peace & security to return to this troubled land.
